DONUT PASS UP THESE BURGERS!

One would THINK that our residents would not care about more rich food to eat after the previous three big holidays, however, low and behold, they were willing and ready when our own Brett Hoffpauir mentioned he was going to take on a whole new spin on how to make cheeseburgers. Mr. Brett illustrated, step by step, on how to make donut cheeseburgers. First thing he cooked was the bacon, followed by the fresh beef patty. He then cut the donut into halves before placing the beef, bacon, and cheese. Everyone seemed to enjoy them and left nothing but a 'happy plate'! Thanks for your time and love, Brett!

The History of Saint Valentine's Day

- Legend has it that in the third century, Emperor Claudius II of Rome made it illegal for men to get married because he wanted them to fight in his wars.
- A local priest named Valentine broke the law and helped young couples who wanted to get married.
- When Claudius found out about Valentine's secret marriages, he had Valentine arrested and ordered for him to be killed.
- While Valentine was in jail, he wrote a love letter to his girlfriend and signed it "From Your Valentine."

INSPIRATIONAL QUOTE OF THE MONTH

HAPPY 100TH BIRTHDAY, Ms. BROUSSARD

We celebrated Mrs. Paula Broussard's one-hundredth year of life last month. Although she has been with us just a couple of months, one can tell she is a wonderful lady who fits right in with our Southwind family. Thanks for choosing SWHR as your home away from home.

BABY, IT'S COLD OUTSIDE

SWHR residents created their own snow person with the following items: socks for the body and head, rice to use as the filling, scraps of material to make a scarf, markers to use as their facial features, a variety of buttons, and a pom- pom to add some flair to the tops of the caps. The residents definitely had their own minds made up when it came to what stacked snowballs should look like to make a very unique snowperson.

RINGING IN THE NEW YEAR!

SWHR brought in the new year with a bang! First of all, way before the champagne and beer were served, the residents had made their own noisemakers to celebrate the countdown. As they donned 2019 party hats, everyone also enjoyed cupcakes, chips and dips, cookies, punch, as well as music and one another's company. We want to take the opportunity to wish all of you the best year ever!
