WE ARE ALL WINGING IT – THAT’S WHAT ANGELS DO!

Our awesome Southwind residents did amazing at the LNHA Region 111 Senior Olympics, which was held at the Robicheaux Center in Lafayette. We laughed, cried (happy tears), sang, danced, and made new friends with lots of wonderful memories. Our competitors returned with 4 metals. Mr. Tommy Sherer won a 2nd and 3rd place metal, Ms. Sherrie Handy and Ms. Genevieve Greenman each won a 3rd place medal. We are so proud of them. Tommy Sherer had the honor of representing Southwind by carrying the torch for the opening ceremonies. We also had the honor of choosing our dear friend Lisa Breaux of Grace Hospice as the Master of Ceremonies, who did a fantastic job and even entertained everyone with a Zumba workout to warm them up before the games began. The smiles and confidence on the faces of those who participated was priceless. It truly was a great day!

BROTHERS GO TO TEXAS

Brothers Adam and Milton Breaux went for a long-awaited visit with their sister and brother-in-law, Laura and Jim Stratton, who reside near beautiful Sam Houston State Park. Laura went all out and served her two younger brothers some of their favorite foods. She began with shrimp and okra gumbo, followed by a tender beef roast, rice and gravy, corn, and green beans. For dessert she didn't disappoint. She made her special homemade strawberry cake, then topped it off with scrumptious sand tart cookies from scratch. It was truly a trip that these guys shall always remember!

LET'S GO, NOTRE DAME!

We really enjoyed our recent outing to watch the Notre Dame Cheer camp. Mr. Jr. Cormier, Ms. Lois Marceaux, and Chris Bergeron all went to watch Mr. Jr's great-granddaughters Claire and Ellen, and Chris's daughter Sophie Jane, and the rest of the St. Michael and Notre Dame cheer squads. They were so excited to show us their cheers and gave us a hearty welcome. These girls really know how to get us ready for some football!

LET'S JUST HANG OUT

Southwind residents look forward to our Friday afternoon hang outs. We love to get together for a friendly game of Bourre and a delicious dessert. Sweet times with sweet friends and sweet treats!
