WE love OUR CNAs!

Southwind Healthcare recently had the privilege of celebrating our CNAs. This group of dedicated young women is very hardworking, and we would not be the same without their service here. CNA week included dress-up days, poetry readings, drawings, trivia games, and The Kona Ice truck. We finished our celebration with a meal of Mr. Brett's delicious homemade spaghetti, and all the fixin's! Ms. Tina collected some comical quotes, heartfelt poems and a special prayer that some of our CNAs read to the residents. Southwind residents expressed their enjoyment of their special time with the CNAs this week. Our CNAs love to see our residents smile, and we love our CNAs!

THANK YOU FOR DOING AN EXCELLENT JOB EACH AND EVERY DAY. WE LOVE YOU VERY MUCH!

FAITH, HOPE, LOVE

Six years in a wheelchair, six years of prayers and six years of waiting...waiting and wishing she could take that first step. Guess what she did? Not one, or even two, but FIVE steps. We are so proud of you, Ms. Terry Leleux! Congratulations on this accomplishment!

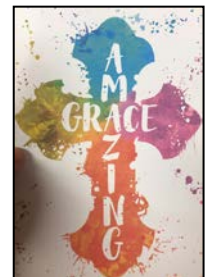

CHEERS TO OUR FATHERS!

Our Father's Day Brunch went beautifully as we gathered to celebrate this special day. We enjoyed a breakfast for champions, including sausage, egg and cheese croissants, fresh cut watermelon, warm danishes, and chilled white grape juice. The décor was bright, cheery, and accented with beer mugs. Special gifts were given to the youngest dad, Mr. Tommy Sherer, and the oldest dad, Mr. Rufus Hoffpauir. Southwind Healthcare thanks everyone who came to help us celebrate our dads.

AMAZING GRACE

Grace Hospice recently conducted our first Memorial service. Many stories were shared, and blessings given, as well as inspirational advice on finding joy in the memories of our departed loved ones. Southwind Nursing and Rehabilitation thanks Grace Hospice and the family members and residents who attended to help us remember.
